Position Summary

Our strength is our people, who together with their diverse backgrounds create a workplace where excellence is valued and the atmosphere is both collaborative and forward-moving. Presently we are looking for skilled counsellors to engage children, youth, and families in creating change in their lives and communities.

As a member of the Family Outreach and Resiliency Team, you will engage with children, youth, and families from a client-focused way, in the community. This position works with youth and families using family systems interventions, specifically Functional Family Therapy Model (FFT) in a collaborative with Catholic Family Service. Flexibility, an ability to engage and work in the community, an interest in working from a family systems perspective and with family structures, as well as being skilled in, or a willingness to be trained in, evidenced-based practices are requirements. An understanding of attachment, social emotional learning and mindfulness are assets. Evening work as well as flexible schedule is expected. As part of a multi-disciplinary team the Functional Family Therapist plays a crucial role in the delivery services to the citizens of Calgary using a FFT model.
