

Flourish with carya

At carya (formerly Calgary Family Services), we know that the strength of our community is rooted in its people.

That's why we've dedicated more than 100 years of service to creating healthier, more connected communities in Calgary.

With 40 program offerings for individuals and families, we provide a full spectrum of interactive counselling and development services for people of all ages — from babies to youth to older adults — and their support networks. Our highly skilled team encourages nearly 40,000 Calgarians each year to discover their full potential and build flourishing relationships with their families and community.

Elder Abuse Social Worker – Prevention (HR296)

Full Time Regular Position (1.0 FTE, 37.5 hours per week)

Salary: $53,354 - $59,999 per annum

Competitive Benefits Package

Position Summary

As part of an Elder Abuse Support Program, the Social Worker's primary responsibility is to provide short-term community support to individuals at risk of being victims of elder abuse. Effectively engaging clients through the process of assessment, supportive counselling and referrals, the Social Worker must use best practices, follow ethical guidelines and respect the clients' uniqueness and right to self-determination while keeping in mind an individual's right to be protected. This role also provides professional consultation and system navigation support to other professionals supporting victims of elder abuse within the community.

This position works closely with a variety of multi-disciplinary teams and provides support to older adults and their families in the context of preventing and promoting awareness of elder abuse.

Responsibilities

- Performs intake which may include referrals to appropriate services or recommendation for intervention.
- Works with a variety of agencies and systems to review referrals and identify risks of elder abuse.
- Once intake is complete, assesses the individual's circumstances, presenting issues, general capabilities, risks and support systems to gain a clear understanding of the individual's situation. Working alongside other professionals involved with the individual within the community.
- Develops goals and a service plan with the individual's and/or family's input.
- Acts as an elder abuse specialist supporting individual(s) and liaises with other service providers and professionals as well as provides supported referrals to programs or services
- Provides information and/or referrals to appropriate community resources to the individual(s) and/or family members as required

Flourish with carya

- Engages in supportive counselling to assist the individual(s) in dealing with their situation and other issues such as grief and loss, health changes, family dynamics, and other age related issues.
- Develops and delivers presentations and workshops to professionals about elder abuse
- Participates in community engagement, awareness and capacity building particularly in the area of elder abuse.
- Establishes and maintains strong working relationships with internal partners, team partners and referral agencies.
- Retains required program statistics, outcome data and information necessary for annual year-end reports.

Qualifications & Experience

This is a position that requires a combination of outreach/system navigation skills as well as advanced clinical skills and confidence in professional consultation particularly in the area of assessment and case management relating to issues of elder abuse

- Master's degree in Social Work is preferred and active registration with ACSW or the ability to become registered with the Alberta Association of Social Workers is required.
- Minimum of 2 years of experience working either with older adults or with victims of abuse.
- Well-developed sense of professional ethics and strong understanding of the importance of client confidentiality.
- Demonstrated ability to work with individuals, dyads, triads, families, and teams.
- Working knowledge of Calgary and Alberta resources for older adults.
- Demonstrated commitment to growth and development by staying current in professional literature, research and practices.
- This position requires the worker to meet with clients in a community setting while assessing risk and meeting safety requirements.
- The successful candidate must undergo a vulnerable sector police check and additional police clearances.
- A driver's license and reliable transportation is required.

Closing Date

January 15, 2019

If you are seeking a genuine challenge in a workplace where excellence is valued and the atmosphere is supportive, please send your résumé to:

carya Human Resources

200, 1000 8 Ave. SW

Calgary, AB T2P 3M7

Fax: (403) 205-5273 | Website: caryacalgary.ca | E-Mail: hr@caryacalgary.ca

We appreciate the interest of all candidates, but only those selected for an interview will be contacted.